TO GO HIGHER

Christian Schultz Pearce, Native of Maysville, May Be U. S. Treasurer

Is One of the World's Greatest Financiers

Washington Dispatch to Saturday's Courier-Journal.

Christian S. Pearce, formerly of Maysville, and known all over Kentucky as "Crib," was notified by Secretary MacVeach today that he will shortly be appointed Assistant Treasurer of the United States, to succeed G. C. Bantz, whose resignation was requested by Mr. MacVeach. The tender of the office was made to Mr. Pearce, but he was not willing to accept until he learned that his advance would be in no way forced out another man. The Secretary made it clear that Mr. Bantz was not wanted any longer in the Treasurer's office and when Mr. Bantz resigned Mr. Pearce agreed to accept. His appointment will be made soon by the President and is subject to confirmation by the Senate. Should the body refuse to confirm Mr. Pearce, which is unlikely, he will continue in office until March, 1913, when it will be up to President Wilson to name an Assistant Treasurer. Should the Senate confirm his appointment he will serve until President Wilson chooses to name a successor.

The indications today were that not only will Mr. Pearce, who is a Democrat, hold his new office under the new administration, but that a boom will be started among Kentuckians to raise him to the office of Treasurer under President Wilson. The Treasurer is one of the first officials to be appointed by a new President.

Mr. Pearce is now chief of the Postal Savings Division of the Treasury at $2,500 a year. His new place pays $3,000. He is a brother of Charles D. Pearce of Louisville, and was appointed to the Treasury Department eighteen years ago by Secretary John G. Carlisle.

He was modest over his advancement when seen today, but highly pleased to think that a Democrat could fare so well under a Republican administration. "A blind hog is bound to find an acorn occasionally," he said, "you can't see a squirrel on the ground."

ENDORSED AT HOME

DOGS AS THIS SHOULD CONVINCE ANY MAYSVILLE CITIZEN

public endorsement of a local citizen is proof that can be produced. None more stronger can be had. When a comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or could not do so. Telling one's experience is for the public good is an act of citizenship that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Maysville is one more to the many cases of Home Remedies which are being published about "Ladies Pills." Read it.

By all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mrs. E. Barnes, Maysville, Ky., says: "I took a box of Ladies Pills in 1908, when I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills still. I know that this remedy is just as good as it has been used by one of my friends with satisfactory results. This is obtained at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

HOME MISSIONS

United Service a Splendid Meeting and Great Progress is Shown

Young People Spend More For Gum and Picture Shows Than For Church Work

The Women's Mission Societies of the various Churches met for an all-day union service at the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday, November 19th.

Miss Burrows conducted the devotional service at the morning session. The services opened with a hymn, Mrs. J. F. Barbour, accompanist.

Then followed scripture lesson from Luke, and prayer.

Miss Louise Best presided over the meeting in general. After Miss Best stated object of the meeting Miss Rains gave an account of the work of the First Presbyterian Church for home missions and an account of Pikeville College Institute.

Miss Rains spoke of the home mission work of the Southern Presbyterian Church and the work among the Negroes.

Miss Best then introduced Mrs. Yancey of Lexington, who made a few remarks as to the object of the meeting.

No report from the Baptist Church, Miss Curtis being unable to be present.

Mrs. Young of the Christian Church then spoke of the work being done by the C. W. R. V.

Miss Gill gave an account of the work of the Episcopal Church.

Miss Best gave the work being done by the women of the M. E. Church, South.

After a song by Miss Laubley, Mrs. Ficklin announced Miss Hurd of the City Missions unable to be present and asked Miss Burrows to present the work of the City Mission. She spoke of their Industrial School and the wonderful work of Mrs. Brock and Miss Hurd. The morning session was closed by the Lord's Prayer being repeated by all.

Mrs. Sharp conducted the devotional of the afternoon's session, opening with the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

While she led in an earnest prayer for God's help and blessing on her efforts, Miss Archdeacon played softly the hymn, "Savior, Thy Dying Love," after which Mrs. Sharp read portions of Scripture from Acts, 24 chapter.

Miss Laubley sang the above mentioned hymn, each verse being interspersed with short prayers from Mrs. Moody, Miss Lee and a silent prayer, closing with the Lord's prayer.

Miss King then sang a beautiful selection. Miss Best presented the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Sarah K. Yancey of Lexington, who spoke on "America—Her Problems, Needs and Opportunities."

She dwelt more especially on the Negro of the South, our mountain people and our immigrants, and stated that in this, our beloved America, there are 74 temples erected for idol worship, and that in our cities many are becoming followers of Haddah.

She deplored the fact that so much more is spent yearly by our young people for chewing gum or moving picture shows alone than for home missions.

She said that no wonder the foreigner coming to our country forms an association for evil rather than good, when our Churches and our religion does not appeal to him as do the saloons, etc.

Here was indeed an instructive and interesting talk, and so many more things might be said about it. May each society for mission work and study profit greatly by it.

She urged the societies of the different Churches not to grow faint, but to remember that it takes the little society here and there to help make the mightier forces working for this great cause.

One verse of "America" was sung and we were dismissed with the Lord's Prayer in concert.

Mrs. R. P. MOODY.

Sister-in-Law Worth Having

Flemingburg Times-Democrat.
There are quite a number of all-god aspirants for the postmastership at this place, although the term of the present incumbent does not expire for nearly a year and a half. And the aspirants for appointment will do well to remember that Miss Mary Bayless, a former Maysville girl, who is private secretary to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, is a sister of the wife of Martin Luther Harrison, of Chicago, a son of Postmaster Harrison. So, you see, there are wheels within wheels and you can't sometimes meet always tell what will happen.

What's Going to Happen?

PARIS, November 23d.—The following events are predicted in the 1913 almanac of Madam De Thebes, famous French prophetess:

The Pope will die.
Poland will be freed.
The Prince of Wales will reign.
The French troops will rush to the frontier.
Paris will be the scene of a terrible theater fire.

Bulgaria will play a stupendous role in Europe.
The German Emperor may come to Paris, but not as a King.

Italy will witness a political upheaval and, perhaps a new King.

The marriage of the Queen of Luxembourg, astounding the world, and damaging France's interests politically.

It is interesting to note that Madame De Thebes last year predicted the Balkan War.

BOILS—PIMPLES—ABSSESSES

All Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition

When the blood becomes thin, poor, de-vitalized nature cries out through such external and often painful evidences for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most powerful blood-purifiers—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mary Lang of Altoona, Pa., says: "Ever since childhood I have been delicate and my blood poor, thin, and devitalized. Nothing seemed to help me until I took Vinol and it has built me up and made me strong."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. J. C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

ONE VOTER CAUGHT

Who Had Been Disfranchised in Adams County Probe

Last week an order was sent from Judge Blair's court, in the Adams Pike District, to have Thomas Curtis brought into court, to have imposed a sentence for violation of the disfranchisement sentence given him when the election probe was on in Adams county.

Curtis was one of a herd who was found guilty of selling his vote, and given a fine of $50 and a suspended sentence of six months in the workhouse.

At the last election he slipped into the Camp Creek neighborhood in Seato county and put one in the ballot box to test out the court's order. He was called into court and given the jail sentence and fine, which has sent him to the Cincinnati workhouse for something like 280 days.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. G. Corn writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help."

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.

Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

DURING PAST YEAR

One Hundred and Fifty Millions Have Been Spent Upon Highways of Country

Ancient Highways Have Withstood the Use of Centuries of Traffic

Those who opposed wagon road improvement and who have been responsible for nothing being done in any of the many parts of the country have no realization either as to what good roads mean in the way of an annual saving to the people of the United States, or to the durability of good roads.

The total mileage of all the roads in the United States is 2,151,570 miles. Not quite 200,000 or 9 1-10 per cent are now improved according to modern methods, leaving more than 90% of mud and dirt highways.

Beyond the saving in the way of wagon transportation the money spent already reaches over this comparatively small improved portion close to $100,000,000. From this it can be seen that if all roads were put in good condition the annual saving would be about one thousand million dollars. The initial cost of improved highways is the only real expense. The upkeep amounts to practically nothing. Take for instance a modern brick road. There is no telling how long it will last, but there are many roads of this character which have been down for twenty years and have grown better as time goes on. Striking examples can be seen of this all over the country and brick manufactured today is of more durability than that which was made two decades back. The same is also true of stone. After a road has been used for a considerable period, if the material chips a little, and it will never chip sufficiently to become rough, it furnished a firmer footing for horses in snowy and rainy weather and thus the ability to haul heavier loads every time is increased with no added wear on the vehicle.

Claim is made that the present agitation in favor of good roads was begun by the owners of automobiles. This becomes amusing when the real facts are known. The Apian Way was built three hundred years before the commencement of the Christian era. Simplicius was built by Napoleon Bonaparte and so before either of these roads were constructed there was an agitation for better highways.

Moses led the children of Israel away from Egypt on a paved road and it was paved as substantially as any of the roads today in the United States. Automobile owners were several thousand years late in starting the agitation in taking people out of the mud.

The present year illustrates the interest which is being taken by the general public in this matter. Something like $15,000,000 have been spent by different states for wagon road improvement. New York alone made an appropriation of $50,000,000 and California was second in the amount given. Ohio unfortunately defeated a proposition to issue $50,000,000 in bonds as proposed in the Constitutional Amendments, but the agitation is going on there and the coming legislation will be asked to make a direct levy for carrying on the work. Requests will undoubtedly be granted.

Ball Bros. of Woodford county have sold to Charles Fold of Chicago their champion three-gaited chestnut mare, Sibyl, 7-year-old, by Montgomery Chief dam by Peacock, for $5,500 cash. Sibyl has been one of the most successful show horses of the year.
